

THORPENESS |
HOTEL & GOLF CLUB | EST. 1922

There's nowhere quite like Thorpeness

You don't need to be a golfer to enjoy everything that the Thorpeness Hotel and Golf Club has to offer, but if you are, you're in for a treat.

Located in the picturesque village of Thorpeness, and situated on the banks of the idyllic Meare, the Thorpeness Hotel and Golf Club is an enchanting retreat away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Our golf course will ensure an excellent day's golf and our well appointed rooms and delicious, locally-sourced food and drink will ensure you're fully rested, relaxed and ready for whatever your stay holds. Whether it's sightseeing, shopping, a business meeting, family meal or more golf, Thorpeness is the ideal choice for a break or short holiday.

Our area of Suffolk is famous for its wide-open skies and, with some of the best weather conditions in the country, a stay at the Thorpeness Hotel and Golf Club will leave you refreshed whatever time of year you choose to stay. We think it is, quite simply, the best golf hotel that Suffolk has to offer.

A course for all seasons

Ideal for all levels of player, our golf course is a scenic stroll through silver birch, pine trees, gorse and heather.

The course and facilities have been continuously modernised and because it's laid on sandy soil in an area of low rainfall, it offers an excellent winter game, often playable when other courses are closed.

Designed by James Braid in 1922, the course is a modern classic and combines the best of contemporary standards with timeless design and flair.

A room with a view

Work, rest or play, we have rooms to suit all your needs.

Whether you've had an invigorating round on the golf course, a day of messing about on the beach or a leisurely stroll around the tea rooms and antique shops in Thorpeness and nearby Aldeburgh, our beautifully appointed rooms will ensure you unwind with ease.

At the end of the day, sink into a cosy bed, snuggle up and dream of what tomorrow will bring. We're sure that the fresh Suffolk air will have you sleeping soundly and you'll be ready to discover more tomorrow.

An all round social occasion

It's an essential part of the experience.

Start your day with a traditional Suffolk breakfast and end it with a G&T on the terrace overlooking the picturesque Meare. However you choose to enjoy your food and drink, our menus are brimming with fresh local produce and are prepared with great passion and flair.

So whether it's bacon butties to set you up for a day on the course, or Champagne and à la carte dining after enjoying the delights of Thorpeness and Aldeburgh, our friendly and professional staff can provide a dining experience to suit all tastes and occasions.

From business to pleasure

Meetings and fine dining in style.

For business meetings, we have a selection of rooms suitable for events and awaydays of all sizes. At the Hotel, the Lakeside room can cater for up to 40, whilst the Library Room is ideal for more intimate meetings. The Thorpeness Country Club can accommodate up to 120 delegates, so whatever you're planning we've got a room to suit your needs.

We have a range of sports and activities for everyone to get involved in, whether it's golf, tennis, cycling, sailing, rowing, beach activities or a treasure hunt, the Thorpeness Hotel is a refreshingly different location by the sea for your event.

For small groups, the hotel offers a private dining experience in our Lakeside Room, where you can enjoy the company of family and friends. Whatever the occasion, a birthday party or wedding, celebrate in a stylish, intimate and peaceful atmosphere. For larger parties, the Thorpeness Country Club provides an excellent venue with stunning views of the sea.

It's more than golf

A stay in the village of Thorpeness is all about fresh sea air and unspoilt but sophisticated easy living.

The village was created in the early 1900's and is made up of Jacobean and Tudor style buildings, the most unique being the iconic House in the Clouds, a water tank disguised as a house!

Close by, the internationally renowned Snape Maltings, picturesque Orford and genteel Southwold are all a short drive away. The Aldeburgh Festival at Snape Maltings allows you to experience the best music and arts on your doorstep.

The area is home to a wide variety of wildlife and the local flora and fauna flourish in this area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. So whether you're taking a walk along the beach, playing tennis or punting on the Meare, you'll wish your lazy days in Thorpeness would never end.

How to find us

Suffolk's best kept secret.
